PREFERRED NEW-CLIENT INVESTMENT

$2,000

Website visual refresh, professional photography, and tri-fold brochure design.

A proactive creative partnership.

Carena Property Management already has a functional digital foundation. The immediate opportunity is to improve how the company presents itself visually—both online and during conversations with prospective property owners—while establishing a dependable external creative resource for future needs.

THE GOAL Modernize the company's visual presentation without disrupting the website's existing functionality.	THE APPROACH Combine original photography, focused website improvements, and a polished print brochure into one cohesive initial engagement.

Why this engagement matters

- Creates a stronger first impression for prospective property management clients.
- Replaces generic or outdated imagery with authentic photographs of the business.
- Provides a professional brochure for meetings and business development conversations.
- Begins a working relationship before urgent technical or creative needs arise.

This proposal intentionally excludes PDF court-form automation, which will remain an internal project.

Tri-Fold Marketing Brochure

$500

Preferred new-client investment

Objective

Transform the company's existing flyer, written content, brand colors, and panel direction into a polished six-panel brochure for meetings with prospective property management clients.

Included

- Six-panel tri-fold layout
- Application of the current brand identity and color system
- Refined content hierarchy and readability
- Professional typography and visual organization
- Print-ready PDF
- Digital PDF
- Editable source file
- Up to two rounds of revisions

Client-provided materials

- Final approved copy
- Current logo files
- Brand colors and available brand assets
- Existing flyer and preferred panel organization
- Printer specifications, when available

Not included

Printing costs, extensive copywriting, translation, custom illustration, additional brochure formats, and revisions beyond the two included rounds are not part of this investment.

The brochure and website will be developed as one visual system, helping every customer touchpoint feel intentional and consistent.

A clear first engagement.
